Gandhi Jayanti 4th October 2025

On 4th October 2025, the F.Y. B.Ed. students celebrated Gandhi Jayanti with great respect and enthusiasm in the presence of our I/C Principal Dr. Ketki Satpute, faculty members, and S.Y. B.Ed students. The programme began with a peaceful prayer that created a calm and spiritual atmosphere, reflecting Mahatma Gandhi's values of truth, peace, and nonviolence. After the prayer, the F.Y. B.Ed. Students presented the Weekly News Bulletin, covering important national, international, and educational updates, encouraging everyone to stay aware and responsible citizens. This was followed by an informative and visually appealing PPT presentation on Gandhiji's life. A meaningful speech by an FY B.Ed student further enriched the programme, focusing on Gandhiji's simplicity, dedication to cleanliness, moral strength, and relevance in today's world. Dr. Ketki Satpute addressed the gathering with an inspiring speech, reminding everyone that Gandhi Jayanti is not only a day to remember the Father of the Nation, but also a day to reflect on the values that shape our character. She appreciated the efforts of participating students for organizing a meaningful event and encouraged future teachers to adopt at least one Gandhian value; truthfulness, simplicity, non-violence, or cleanliness in their daily lives. She concluded her speech by urging students to become educators who inspire others through their character and actions. The event concluded with everyone standing in unity for the National Anthem, honouring the nation and the values.

Mehendi & DIY Competition 13th & 14th October 2025

Student Council Members of S.Y. B.Ed. organised a Diya decoration and Rangoli competition, encouraging students to showcase their creativity during the festive season of Diwali. Students enthusiastically participated in both competitions. The theme was given as 'Diwali Festivals'; accordingly, they drew beautiful mehendi designs on the peers' hands. In the DIY competition they made beautiful lanterns, decorative items with paper, straw, cardboard etc. and unleashed their creativity. The faculty from the commerce college judged the Mehendi designs as well as DIY articles. Participants were appreciated for their eco-friendly and innovative designs. Winners were declared by the judges immediately after the competition and were awarded certificates. The principal, in her address, emphasized celebrating Diwali in an eco-friendly and safe manner, avoiding firecrackers and spreading happiness through good deeds. The program concluded with a vote of thanks by the student coordinator, expressing gratitude to all faculty members, participants, and volunteers for making the event successful. Refreshments were distributed, and everyone left with smiles and festive cheer.
