

ABOUT US

Sree Narayana Guru was a seer, a philosopher, a visionary, a scientist, a social reformer, and a poet all blended into one - an embodiment of all virtues, values and rare qualities seldom found in the human race. Guru's most famous saying "One caste, One Religion, One God for Mankind" is a call to all mankind to transient the limits of formal religion and to work on the spiritual level towards evolving a close-knit world community. To propagate this brilliant teaching, a group of ardent followers of the Guru in Mumbai formed Sree Narayana Mandira Samiti, a trust registered under Societies Registration Act of 1860(Reg. No.BOM/44/1964 dated 8th April 1964) and Bombay Public Trust Act of 1950 (Reg. No.F 1185(BOM) dated (17th July 1965). The main objective of the Samiti was to establish, conduct and maintain educational institutions.

The college was established in 2009 after receiving the required recognition from NCTE and affiliation from the University of Mumbai. Over the years the institution has grown from a seed into a sapling. The institution is situated amidst nature. Students walk into the sprawling campus develop essential skills and leave the portals of the institution with a flame glowing in their heart of the values and teachings of Narayana Guru.
